Questions for Reflection and Discussion

- Titus was a young pastor and Paul's protégé. Read Titus 1:5. What was Titus' task while in Crete?

Crete boasts magnificent beaches, but Titus wasn't there on vacation—this was hardship duty!
Read Titus 1:10-13 & 16. How would you go about the task of pastoring a church full of Cretians?

Read Hebrews 13:17. Describe how church members ought to respond to their leaders—and why?

What chance do you think Titus had of receiving such a response in Crete?

Elders lead churches. Read Titus 1:5-9. How do you imagine Titus would go about finding Cretan men who were qualified for such a role? What should he do if none qualified to be elders?

- Read Titus 2:2-8a, and review the demographic descriptions and exhortations for each group.

Paul—who described himself as an "older man"—was about sixty years old when he wrote Titus. Likewise, "older women" would have been those who no longer had child-rearing responsibilities. "Young men/women" would have been married adults under those ages.

So, in which category are you? older man older woman young man young woman

Divide the group by gender and discuss the list of exhortations directed at you. How are you doing?

- TCC provides environments—community groups, Bible studies, ministry teams, biblical counseling, (and many, many more)—to "transform ordinary people into extraordinary followers of Jesus Christ who Know Christ, are Growing in Christ, and who are Showing Christ to others."

In which of TCC's environments are you currently participating? How is it transforming you as a disciple?

Second Timothy 2:2 outlines multiple generations of disciples. Who is pouring himself into you?
Into whom are you pouring yourself?

Talking To Others About This Week's Message

If a neighbor or friend at work asked you, "What kind of stuff do they talk about at your church?", how would you summarize the most important ideas of this week's sermon and the key lessons you intend to apply to your life? Can you explain it in plain language anyone could understand?

Sermon Summary (Key Text: Titus 2:1-8)

How does a Christian reach maturity in their walk with the Lord? The pathway to Godliness is discipleship. Titus 2:1-8 gives us five important truths about discipleship.

1. Discipleship's source is correct teaching (2:1). Sound doctrine will result in sound faith and sound speaking. Healthy doctrine produces healthy spiritual living. The gospel is to produce godliness in the lives of those within the church, whether old or young, male or female.

2. Discipleship starts with mature believers (2:2-3). Titus ⇌ Pastor/Elders ⇌ Congregation

3. Discipleship succeeds in relationships (2:4-7a). Relationships is the only avenue to persevere sound doctrine. Otherwise false teachers will continue to lead people astray, but relationships keep them close to accountability. Who is someone in your life the the Lord has used to teach you how to follow Jesus? How did they do this? Who are you seeking to pour your life into?

4. Discipleship shows others how to live for Christ (2:7b). We are all teaching somebody. Discipleship is caught more than it is taught. Jesus said: "Follow me and I will make you fishers of men."

5. Discipleship strives to honor God above all things (2:8). We must seek to make disciples with a full head and a hot heart. A full head with cold heart will hurt people (= hypocrisy). An empty head with hot heart only serves temporal needs (= humanitarianism). A full head and hot heart will change the world (= holiness). What ultimately brings God honor?

Older Men

- Teachers (implied from verse one)
- Self-Controlled - temperate, free from intoxications
- Worthy of Respect - dignified; never frivolous, trivial, or superficial
- Sensible - discernment and discretion from walking many years with God
- Sound in Faith - trust the Lord in all things. Level-headed, doesn't over-react
- Sound in Love - the distinguishing mark of their lives. Everything is motivated by love
- Sound in Endurance - Their lives have stood the test of time. Long-suffering and patient

Older Women

- Reverent in Behavior - literally "temple-fitting", her life is a reflection of the Lord she serves
- Not Slanderers - speech is always positive and seeking to honor the Lord
- Not Addicted to Much Wine - she is in control; nothing controls her
- Teach what is good to young women - a godly home will orbit around a godly wife and mother

Young Women

- Love Their Husbands
- Love Their Children
- To Be Sensible
- Pure
- Good Homemakers
- Submissive to Their Husbands

Young Men

- Sensible about everything
- Set an example of integrity and dignity
- Shame brought upon opponents

Titus 2:1-8

¹ But you are to proclaim things consistent with sound teaching.

² Older men are to be self-controlled, worthy of respect, sensible, and sound in faith, love, and endurance.

³ In the same way, older women are to be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not slaves to excessive drinking.

They are to teach what is good,
⁴ so that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands and to love their children,
⁵ to be self-controlled, pure, workers at home, kind, and in submission to their husbands, so that God's word will not be slandered.

⁶ In the same way, encourage the young men to be self-controlled
⁷ in everything. Make yourself an example of good works with integrity and dignity in your teaching.

⁸ Your message is to be sound beyond reproach, so that any opponent will be ashamed, because he doesn't have anything bad to say about us.

Digging Deeper in Your Daily Quiet Time

God's Word makes extraordinary promises—to those who are willing to discipline themselves for the purpose of godliness.
Each day this week, read over Proverbs 2 and decide one way you'll follow its wisdom...

Proverbs 2

¹ My son, if you will receive treasure
² make your ear attentive to incline your heart to ³ for if you cry for lift your voice for ⁴ if you seek her
search for her ⁵ then you will discern discover my words, and
my commandments within you,
wisdom,
understanding,
discernment
understanding,
as silver, and
as for hidden treasures,
the fear of the LORD, and the knowledge of God.

⁶ For the LORD gives wisdom,
from His mouth come knowledge and understanding.
⁷ He stores up sound wisdom for the upright,
He is a shield to those who walk in integrity.
⁸ guarding the paths of justice, and
He preserves the way of His godly ones.

⁹ Then you will discern righteousness, and justice, and equity, and
every good course

¹⁰ For wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul, ¹¹ discretion will guard you,
understanding will watch over you,
¹² to deliver you from the way of evil,
¹³ from the man who speaks perverse things;
from those who leave the paths of uprightness
to walk in the ways of darkness, ¹⁴ who delight in doing evil, and rejoice in the perversity of evil, ¹⁵ whose paths are crooked, and who are devious in their ways.

¹⁶ To deliver you from the strange woman,
¹⁷ from the adulteress who flatters with her words;
that leaves the companion of her youth, and forgets the covenant of her God;

Proverbs 2 makes extraordinary promises—to those who seek discipleship. (See the "Digging Deeper" section of your Talking Points, Walking Points for the text in the form of a mechanical lay-out for easier observation.)

Choose an age-appropriate verse or two to share with your children. Then...

- Read it to them as you sit down to dinner early this week.
- Ask them what stands out to them from it, and what confuses them?
- Be prepared to share how those verse(s) impacted you personally.
- Ask them to "keep on the look-out" for examples of it in their own lives.
- Close in prayer. (Then, revisit that passage again later in the week.)
